By joining the organisation, I agree to the personal information provided by me in connection with my enrolment for membership of the Irish Society of Insolvency Practitioners (the "Society") being processed by the Society in accordance with the Data Protection Act, 1988 and 2003. I agree that my personal information may be included in a list of members which may be published by the Society on a website, in electronic, CD Rom or paper format. My personal information will also be used for operating the Society, stored on a database for administration purposes in connection with the publication and maintenance of this list of members and in order to keep me updated as to developments which the Society considers may be of interest to me. I understand that I can access and amend personal information held by the Society by contacting the Society Secretary.

I understand that, pursuant to Clause 11 (d) of the Constitution of the Irish Society of Insolvency Practitioners, the Council may, in its absolute discretion, and without stating any reason for its decision admit or refuse an application to Membership of the Society.

I further understand that, pursuant to Clause 13 of the Constitution of the Irish Society of Insolvency Practitioners, every application for Membership shall be deemed to constitute a warranty (as a condition of membership) that the contents of the application are true and an undertaking by the applicant that, if admitted to Membership, I will be bound by the Constitution and by all the rules and regulations of the Society for the time being in force.
